Les Amies - Sunday, February 19, 3:00pm

New York Philharmonic Principal players Nancy Allen, harp, and Cynthia Phelps, viola, join internationally renowned flutist Carol Wincenc to form one of the most dynamic trios that this particular instrumental combination can produce. Presenting works by Ibert, Bax, Devienne, Fauré and Debussy.

Tesla Quartet - Sunday, March 19, 3:00pm

Community involvement and outreach are integral parts of the Tesla Quartet's mission, and the group has brought inspiring music to children's hospitals, soup kitchens, libraries, retirement communities, and schools. They are currently the String Quartet-in-Residence in the Hickory, North Carolina, metro area. Presenting works by Mozart, Puts and Sibelius.

Atlantic Guitar - Quartet Sunday, April 30, 3:00pm

Through virtuosic performances, innovative programming and collaborations with other visual and performing artists, the AGQ has broadened the repertoire for – and the definition of – the classical guitar quartet. Each of the four members, Mark Edwards, Kevin Shannon, Zoe Johnstone Stewart and Jonathan Zwi, have enjoyed extensive solo performing and teaching careers since receiving advanced degrees from the Peabody Conservatory.

We invite you to join the artists for refreshments after each concert.

The Ulster Chamber Music Series is a 501(c)(3) Charitable Organization.
