Who's Who

Michael Curtis (Grandson - Nick Cristiano) Michael was last seen by Coach House audiences as one of the Tweedle Brothers in Lust 'n Rust. Favorite roles over the years have included Billy Bibbit in One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest, Allan in Play It Again, Sam, Richard Rich in A Man For All Seasons, and another Nicky in Bell, Book and Candle. He hopes everyone enjoys the show, and if anyone would like to send a lasagna in the mail to the Coach House...

Rachel Davis (Single gal - Caitlin O'Hare) Rachel appeared as Tanya in Coach House Players' Lust 'n Rust, as Constable Thompkins in Murdered to Death and as Hope Langdon in Something's Afoot, and participated in the 4th and 5th Annual Variety Shows. She was assistant director in Coach House Players' Nana's Naughty Knickers. Rachel is a past recipient of the annual Coach House Scholarship, and went on to study music at The Crane School of Music in Potsdam, NY. Rachel participated in several area musicals as a member of the pit orchestra including a SUNY New Paltz production of Sweeney Todd, and SUNY Ulster productions of Annie Get Your Gun and Bye Bye, Birdie. She enjoys participating in all Coach House productions and loves her "Coach House Family."

Terri Dwyer (Grandmother - Emma Cristiano) This is Terri's 48th year as a Coach House member. She has appeared in and worked back stage on numerous plays and served on the board of directors; holding various offices. She has also appeared with many other theater groups, Kingston Kiwanis Kapers, and sung with several area church choirs. Terri feels very at home in this role, as she was raised in an Italian household and she has four beautiful grandchildren. Terri thanks you for attending this performance and invites you to consider joining Coach House — it's fun!

Alan Gill (Grandfather - Nunzio Cristiano) Returning to the stage after a 12 year hiatus, Alan decided to dive back into his favorite theater group, The Coach House Players and appeared at Tom O'Grady in Nana's Naughty Knickers. A veteran of over 15 plays and appearing in Sundance film festival award winning movie, You Can Count on Me. His role as the older cop was nominated for briefest visible speaking part in a movie. In regards to his love for acting, he has been heard to say, "The heart of the characters I play beat within the very soul of my being." Alan is also pretty handy with a hammer and saw having built numerous sets for several different local theater groups. He looks forward to providing you with an evening of joyous frivolity and comedy. Alan wishes to dedicate his performance to the memory of his beautiful wife Lynn.

Rosie Interrante (Grandmother - Aida Gianelli) Rosie, a 25 year member of CHP, is serving on our Board of Directors and is currently our Treasurer. Rosie has played various roles on and off stage at Coach House for many years. A few of her absolute favorite roles were Truvy in Steel Magnolias and Sophie in Social Security (both for CHP); Olive Madison in the female version of The Odd Couple for NYCA was also a favorite. She also appeared in the Woodstock Playhouse 2012 Summer Stock production of The Producers for Randy Conti. She also enjoyed her "extra" work in a film directed and produced by Nigel Finch filmed in The Village called "The Uprising of the Stone Wall". Rosie can also be seen in a Paramount production by Scott Rudin called "In and Out"! She would like to thank Rissa for all the conversations she had with Aida and keeping her on task. Thanks also to the Coach House Family and all of our patrons and supporters. We couldn't do this without you. Perhaps next time you'll enjoy Sunday Dinner with the Gianelli's & the Cristiano's!! Now, Who's Hungry?!

Ann Papelian (Director) Ann has been a member of CHP for 23 years. She continues to chair the Box Office and Season Tickets. Ann is currently on the Board of Directors, has been a director, assistant director, production manager, costumes, lights, refreshments to name many of the jobs it takes to put on a production. Ann has also been on stage in many CHP musicals and all the musical revues. Ann says it is always a pleasure to work with such a fun and talented cast, and it's the best when new people join a production. New faces are always welcome – the more the merrier. Special thanks to our faithful Patrons, always nice to see you. Enjoy.

David Rubenstein (Grandfather - Frank Gianelli) It is David's pleasure to be in another Coach House Players show, having appeared as Red in Lust 'n Rust, as Schmidt in Nana's Naughty Knickers and as Flint in Something's Afoot. David also directed Coach House Players' production of Murdered to Death earlier this year. David has also performed with the NYCA Repertory Company for several years, most recently enjoying his roles as Professor Plum in Clue and Mr. Sheinkopf in Fame. David also has directed (On Golden Pond: Group II) and has written and directed a short anti-drinking and driving film (Losing Hope). Although recently retired from teaching English at Saugerties Junior High School, he continues his "other job" as a disc jockey.

This production is the first to appear on
COACH HOUSE PLAYERS' NEW STAGE
designed and built by Edward Kleinke and a small but dedicated group of Coach House members.
