"Scarlet and Cream"

Alma Mater for the Samuel Decker Coykendall Preparatory High School to the tune of Aura Lee music by George R. Poulton (1861) words by Mike Harelick (2014)

Scarlet on a field of cream Fly o'er the school we love
Rondout Creek below our feet Montrepose above.

Coykendall, Coykendall, of the school we sing
We will praise you all our days, still remembering.

Alma Mater, "mother mine", is what the Latin means.
And Latin is the mother tongue of Popes and Kings and Queens,

But Samuel Coykendall cared not for Latin much,
Sam cared just for Guilders gold, for Samuel was Dutch.

A Note from the Director

Ordinarily, people vacation in the mountains or at the beach ... or travel extensively. For the past seven years, I've spent my summer writing and directing the Variety Show here at Coach House. Players and I will wager that I had the most fun. The fact that so many of the cast have become regulars testifies to the fact that they have a great time too.

Everyone at CHP is a volunteer. Applause is our reward ... and it's enough! For us! We donate our time, our talent, even our furniture to set a stage. We are here because we love live theater and we desperately want and need you to love it, too.

Ticket sales pay for rights to the shows you want to see, heats and cools our building and pays our bills. Our building is our treasure, but it is old and needs plumbers and electricians, painters and carpenters. We do what we can, but we can't do it all. We need your help. You are already helping by being here. Bring your friends. Tell your co-workers about us. Spread the word to your neighbors. Your word of mouth is our greatest advertisement.

Barbara Jones

About the Directors

Barbara Jones (Director) Barbara has been an active Coach House Players member since 1992. She made her directorial debut with the CHP production of Wait Until Dark, and has directed every annual Variety Show since it's inception in 2008 (this is her seventh). She has worked in every capacity in CHP from costume and set design to doing sound and lights as well as some wonderful roles on stage. The friends she has made and the laughter and good times have been the greatest reward.

Bob Jones (Barbara's husband and Assistant Director) Bob joined Coach House Players in 1992. He has served on the Board of Directors and was President for several years. Bob has been in dozens of shows onstage, as a member of the orchestra as well as stage crew, sound, construction, set decoration and general whatever is needed. He performs in the community as MrBanJones and will once again sing and play in tonight's Variety Show. He hopes you enjoy the show and keep coming back ... with friends!
