From the director's chair...

Welcome to Coach House Players' production of "The Enchanted Cottage" by Sir Arthur Wing Pinero. This story has been a favorite of mine for many years and that is why I chose it to be the vehicle for my maiden voyage into the world of directing. We have assembled a wonderful cast and crew for this production. I ask you to sit back, suspend disbelief and venture with us into this fable, an adult fairy-tale, if you will. We hope you enjoy watching it as much as we have enjoyed preparing and presenting it to you. Thank you.

Susan Regan

Fun Fact:

The eight-foot tall cabinet façade appearing on stage in this show was used in the 1982 Columbia film "Tootsie" starring Dustin Hoffman and Jessica Lange and filmed in part in the town of Hurley.

A Note from the Cast of "The Enchanted Cottage"...

We would like to dedicate our performance to our friend and fellow cast-mate Ken Thompson who, for health reasons, had to leave our cast. We love you and we miss you.
